SMC To Hear Talk By Abbe Bidaux

Alumni To Be Royally Welcomed Oct. 26-27-28

By Owen J. Murphy

Rev. Gerard Duford S.S.E., Alumni Secretary, has announced that plans for the annual Fall Homecoming have been completed with a full weekend planned for the "Oldtimers" on October 26, 27, 28.

SMC AFROTC Swells To 270

St. Michael's AFROTC unit now numbers 270, according to Lt. Col. Jarvis R. Kingston.

Col. Kingston said the number was very gratifying since it represents more than one third of the student body. Since juniors and seniors who were not veterans are not eligible, the percentage of those who decided to work for a degree and a commission at the same time is even higher.

Of the 270, about 10 are in the advanced course because of their previous military training. At least one freshman because of four years service is able to take the advanced course, Col. Kingston said.

The schedule will open an informal meeting atop the Hotel Vermont, at the Roof Garden, at 8:00 p.m. Friday night, October 26. On Saturday afternoon, the Purple Gridders will try to show the grads that, St. Mike's can still go on with as much spirit and ability as when they were here, by pulling a victory out of the hat against powerful Springfield at the Athletic Field, which many of them may not have seen as yet.

The second Annual Alumni Award Dinner, giving recognition to the graduates who have stayed in contact and supported their Alma Mater, will take place in the Green Room of the Hotel at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, followed immediately by the Homecoming Dance at 9:00, in the Ballroom.

SENIOR PROFILES ARE OVERDUE. GET THEM IN.

Peripatitic Billboard Gives All For Old SMC

This past summer, Rev. Gerard Duford combined business with pleasure. He spent from June 15 to September 17 in Holmes near Pawling, N.Y., at the Sanita Hills summer camp for the employees of the New York City Department of Sanitation.

He was asked to do parish work for the Catholics participating in this activity by the Holy Name Society of the department.

Although Father's major work was spiritual, he truly became St. Michael's ambassador to that area even to the extent of wearing his S.M.C. "T" shirt during the softball games. At the close of the softball season, Father boasted a .520 batting average, and was named to play on the county All-Star team.

Father was greatly impressed with the people he met at Sanita and he met some four thousand. He said of the people there, "I have never met more generous people." Father also commented on his publicity work at the camp. He said, "Anyone who came within shouting distance of me now knows of St. Michael's and I know for a fact," he continued, "that there are families in the Brooklyn and Manhattan areas who are now convinced that St. Michael's is the college to send their children."

All in all, the jovial Old Hall rector said he had a very profitable summer and sums it up this way. "It was good to be able to do parish work again and to be able to talk about St. Michael's at the same time."

While there, he saw dedicated a new chapel, a project which as alumni secretary he'd like to see duplicated on campus.

Ten Concerts At Auditorium

By Charles F. Smith

How much is it worth to you to see 10 American and foreign made movies and two concerts?

The Fleming Museum Association offers this package bargain plus several as yet unselected movies to all area students for one dollar.

This coming Sunday at 4 P.M. in the Fleming Museum there will be a harp and violin recital of chamber music by the internationally known artists Charlotte and Artiss de Volt to commence the series, which will extend throughout the school year.

These one dollar student Museum Association memberships may be bought at the Fleming Museum on Colchester Avenue on the University of Vermont campus between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on weekdays and between 9 a.m. and 12 noon and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays. Memberships $3.00 for faculty members.

Your membership will entitle you to a monthly bulletin of museum activities, and will admit you to all movies, previews, lectures, and art exhibits during the coming year.

For the musically inclined Die Fledermaus, and the biography of Rossini and the concerts are offered.

For those with a flair for the stage there is George Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion; for the romance language student there are excellent French, Italian, and German language films, with English sub-titles.

For everyone there is an edifying, and educational program without the stigma of "high-falutiness" that one ordinarily associates with this sort of thing; for this is downright good entertainment in which every student should participate.

Abbe Bidaux To Speak Wed. Eve. In Science Hall

Abbe Andre Gerard Bidaux, member of the French Underground during World War Two and recipient of the Croix de Guerre and the Medal of the Resistance, will speak to the students of St. Michael's next Wednesday evening in Science Hall.

Dances and money tied for first place in discussion at this week's Student Council meeting. Recognition of various clubs shared much of the proceedings.

Jerry Finn submitted a budget of $544 for the Senior Ball. A motion that the seniors be allotted this amount was seconded and carried.

The motion that the Sophs run the Harvest Moon Hop was seconded. However, it was tabled so as to allow more time to formulate plans for this dance.

Five club budgets have been received thus far, but no action will be taken until all club budgets are in.

The French Club was reverted from a club with representation to a recognized. The Sociology Club was recognized. The Phil Club obtained representation.

Abbe Bidaux will talk on the present state of Catholicism in France and the "Mission of Paris" (the "Priest-Workers"). He will also relate his underground experiences during WWII.

Born in Flers (Orne), France in 1899, Abbe Bidaux attended the College of the Immaculate Conception and the Grand Seminary of Sees (Orne), where he studied theology and philosophy. He then pursued advanced studies in English and German language and Literature.

Before World War II, he taught English and German at the Ecole St. Francois de Sales, spending his vacations in England.

Immediately after the fall of France, Abbe Bidaux joined the Resistance. His numerous underground activities and his clandestine contacts with the allies caused his arrest by the German Gestapo in 1942.

He was deported to the extermination camp of Natzweiler-Struthof after having been kept in solitary confinement at the prison of

Outing Club To Conquer Mt. Mansfield, Sunday

Buses will leave tomorrow morning, at 9:00 a.m., from in front of College Hall to bring all "outdoor lovers" of St. Mike's along with girls from Trinity College, Fanny Allen and Bishop DeGosbriand Hospitals on the first leg of the annual mountain climb to the top of Mt. Mansfield. This is the first of a series of Outing Club-sponsored events planned for the coming year.

The "climb" will start on the Underhill side of the mountain and will terminate in the "Octagon" with a free lunch being served and a little "Hill Billy" music, to make the day realistic, supplied.

Paul Arietnti (OH 312), Bernard Rogue (OH 418), and Joe Gramer (St. John's 107) are in charge of arrangements, under the direction of Joe Crowley, president of the Outing Club and Prof. "Connie" Hannigan, Moderator. Tables have been set up in the "Chow Hall" for reservations, but the latest signing-up time is noon today (Sat.). Tickets are $1.00 for non-members, and $.50 for members of the club.

As an added attraction, there will be a prize for the winner. Anyone, that is, who beats Fr. Vincent Maloney to the top.

Michaelmen Travel To NFCCS Council

Three Michaelmen will travel to St. John's College, Hartford, Conn., this weekend to attend the Fall Council meeting of the N.F.C.C.S.

Senior delegate from St. Michael's is John O'Connor, a sophomore from Springfield, Mass. William T. Doyle, a Junior from Worcester, Mass., will attend the Council as President of the Mission Crusade and Co-Chairman of the Mission Commission of the N.F.C.C.S.

ATTENTION ALL SENIORS

There is to be a senior list posted in front of the Registrar's office. All seniors are to check this list for their name. If you cannot find your name, check with Don Slaven in Ryan 123.

This list is not complete and those names missing should be filled in before Monday, October 15. The Yearbook pictures are based on this list.

Purple Knights Face 19 Game Hoop Schedule

Hilltopics

FROM 1....The State of Connecticut is well known for its nutmeg. This dates back to the time that sharpies sold wooden pegs for the genuine nutmeg. When the customer ground the merchandise, they got sawdust instead of the nutmeg. The latest "nutmeg" from Connecticut was received in the mail. It was from the University of Bridgeport football brochure. They have given themselves the "pseudonym" Purple Knights their football team. Where do they get that? What connection is there between UB and Knights?

Our stake to the claim as THE Purple Knights is quite well established. Back in the middle ages there were a band of Crusaders known as the Knights of St. Michael. Further, on the emblem of St. Michael's College is the same type of cross that emblazoned the shields of the Knights of St. Michael's.

We detect another pile of sawdust from Connecticut.. To 30.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Mr. Viridi Monte may find his 50th football anniversary spoiled by Norwich. No need to tell anyone that the Cadets have a great coaching staff in Duke Benz and Bob Priestly...The students athletic ticket idea is a good one. The one card is a lot easier to carry around than the bulky book of tickets. Punching the ducats may be a line-jammer come hoop time..Lowering the seating capacity of the Memorial Auditorium will slowly strangle ideas of seeing major clubs inaction on the downtown court. This "fire trap" problem is quite a political issue...Thanks to the sender at Middlebury for the football brochure. Our grandchildren may be around when and if SM-M meet on the gridiron in the year 2000.

Knights Knots: Vermont opposition has racked up only 35 points against "Doc" Jacobs football teams in four years. The total includes eight games, seven of which we have won. Don Hamlin, ex-SM student, is assistant coach of the 43rd Division football team. Don has been round the campus and says that Marty Conley ('50) is vying for a starting berth on the squad. Conley has played some good football for the Purple Knights. Prediction for today: Norwich over Vermont by two touchdowns.

Intramurals Open; St. Leo, Win

By Fran Hoben

Under its new director, Fr. Stankiewicz, the Autumn schedule of the Intramural League began Monday. Basketball games were played in the Gym but threatening weather forced postponement of three touch football contests.

Under present plans the League will function on every weekday afternoon and night except Friday. Games will be played in both sports with the starting times listed as: 4:30, 6:30, and 8:00. Everyone is eligible to play who is not a member of the football squad or of last Winter's varsity basketball team. However, an individual is permitted to play only one sport, and teams guilty of using him in both will forfeit automatically.

TWENTY TEAMS

Fr. Stankiewicz has divided the various halls on campus to form a twenty team membership and allow every student an opportunity to take part. Ryan Hall, for instance, has been split into eight groups, with each wing of each floor having a representative. Old Hall will field a club from each floor as will St. John's and St. James'. St. Patrick's, St. Leo's, St. William's, Handy's and St. Edmund's complete the list.

Because of this unusually large number of entrants no playoffs will be possible. And, through necessity, the team with the best record at Thanksgiving Holiday will be crowned champion.

THRILLING OPENER

The opening game of the season matched two of the more heated rivals. St. Pat's and St. Leo's, against each other. The Irishman seemingly, were on their way to a cherished victory, until Jim Garvey swished a long set with nine seconds to go, sending the game into overtime. Chuck Toomey then garnered the only score in extra minutes to give his club a 23-21 win.

Bobby Broulette tallied 21 points for St. William's as they crushed St. James' II 41-29. St. James' I regained a little prestige for their hall by thumping St. John's II 36-18.

Cadets Grid Edge In Rough Battle

By John Loughran

The once-beaten Cadets from Northfield invaded Winoski Park last Saturday and gave the Purple Knights a rough and tumble game before going down to a 14-0 loss.

Led by quarterback Murray Fisher and shifty Dick Costin at right halfback, the maroon eleven penetrated deep into Michaelman territory before giving up the ball on downs. Up on the line it was big Bill Wasserman at tackle and Captain Bill Crannell, an All-Stater last year, at end.

The Purple Knights led by Kenny Casperson at quarterback, had to fight hard to stop the greatly improved and inspired Norwich eleven from scoring. The end of the first quarter found St. Michael's driving deep into Cadet territory, as a result of Jack Heggarty's brilliant 28 yard sprint around left end.

CARR, SIMAS SCORE

On the first play of the second quarter, Mike Carr drove around his right end from the 5 to score the first Purple Knight touchdown. Art Coggio made it six in a row with a fine boot through the uprights. Late in the second stanza, Dick Stokes charged in from his end position and threw his frame in front of Chet Szejkowski's attempted punt. The ball slid off to the right where guard John Provenzano pounced on it at the five yard line. On the next play, Frank Simas bulled over the left side for the second and last touchdown of the game. Art Coggio did it again with a dropkick, his seventh in a row this season. Final score: St. Michael's 14, Norwich 0.

Fresnes for ten months. He was then transferred to the infamous camp of Dachau. It is to the American Army that he owes his liberation from this torture center.

Abbe Bidaux returned to France in a deplorable state of health due to his privations, and hard labor, only to find that his brother, (also a Priest and professor), had been killed in Germany in 1944 and that the Ecole St. Francois de Sales where he had taught for so many years, had been completely destroyed.

Two years of convalescence was necessary to bring back his health sufficiently to permit him to resume part of his activities at his former school. Last year, he made a lecture tour in England. He is decorated with the Croix de Guerre and the medal of Resistance.

Can the Knights keep rolling? The Purple Knight hoopers, led by Coach Barry Branon, have a large order cut out for them this year. Over the past two seasons they have rolled up an impressive record of 28 consecutive victories within the state, including 21 on their home court against some of the toughest small college teams in the East.

The defending State champions will meet three new opponents this season. To offset the loss of such fine attractions as Texas Wesleyan Taylor of Ind., and Loyola of Baltimore, athletic Director Jacobs had scheduled Colby College of Maine, St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., and the up-and-coming University of Brandies. St. Francis is the only one that will be played in the Auditorium. Another highlight will be the annual trip to the Boston Gardens. This year, as last, Tufts will supply the opposition in the Hub.

BURZENSKI GONE

The Knights have their work cut out for them. The team has experience but lacks that one big man. The loss of big Ted Burzenski is going to hurt, but hustle and experience may be able to replace his large frame.

Most of the load this Fall will fall on seniors Jimmy Farley, Paul Stapleton, Bob Duffy and Bob Kateley, together with junior returnees George Barry and Paul Aumand. Farley's superb ball-handling and all around play should make him a standout in this, his final year. Paul Stapleton is another ballhandler and the other half of the dynamic duo of Farley and Stapleton. The forwards, Barry, Aumand and Kateley are all aggressive rebound men and deadly on the inside.

SOPHS UNTESTED

Big Bob Murphy is a key man in Coach Branon's plans. The 6-foot, 5-inch junior could be the sleeper to fill Burzenski's shoes. Add such men as Mike Carr, who saw a lot of reserve action last winter, Hank Witte, and a group of untested sophomores led by Jackie Polworth.

A NOTE OF GRATITUDE

Once again the Mission Crusade of St. Michael's College is preparing to help those in need of assistance. In the past, this organization has sent money and materials to the Society of St. Edmund's Missions in the South. The members of the Mission Crusade Club have collected from the Michaelmen on and off campus money for these worthy missions in the South.

This year the goal is even higher. It stands to reason that as years go by and as the development of the Southern Missions progress, more money is needed.

The Mission Crusade Club realizes this and their plans include expansion of their limited facilities to raise this much needed money.

The following letter will explain and justify this editorial:

Dear Father Boucher:

I received your letter in which I found a check for $250.00. I sincerely thank you and the Mission Crusade which worked to obtain this money. Knowing how hard it is to raise money these days, I know and appreciate how hard work it meant to be able to raise this much. It certainly indicates that the young men at our College are go-getters and deeply imbued with the love of Christ and His poor and unfortunate brothers.

As the Moderator, you have every right to be proud of the Crusaders. I, as an alumnus, am thankful that the spirit of the Mission Crusade at St. Michael's College is everything our Divine Master wants it to be.

Father, I want you to know that although we have spent the money already, by buying some much needed furnishings for the Don Bosco Boys' Club, I and the Catholic members of the club at least will never stop praying for your intentions. Only this morning at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, I made a special memo.

Please let me ask one more favor of you and the Mission Crusade. Remember the Boys' Club in your prayers. Many of the boys know little of God. Only 25 are Catholics and the rest are just about anything else. With a lot of God's help which we can receive by prayer many more will come to know God.

Asking God and Our Holy Mother to Bless you,
N.B. Ziter, S.S.E.

This letter, from the Mother Mission House in Selma, Ala., shows the appreciation felt by those "at the other end of the Mission Crusade line". We at this end can certainly do our part. They are counting on us.

A NOTE OF INGRATITUDE

Many, many years ago, when this college was in its infancy, there was a prominent club on campus called "Le Club Carillon". It was perfectly natural that this should be.

The Society of St. Edmund came from France. The majority of the students were French. The French tongue was a second tongue among the students. Everyone was happy.

But enter the villain!...Father Time and a lackadaisical attitude! Time promoted this attitude and as a result one of the oldest clubs on campus became the least responsive and passive.

But it is the fault of students who have let this club slide to its present position.

At the moment a few students, conscious of the ingratitude of the students of the past, are working to build up this old and most worthy club. They have a job on their hands and should receive much acclaim and help.

Catholics are known for their help of those in need. Let us show the Club Carillon that the college does hold a place in its heart for one of the oldest extra-curricular activities on campus. Join it! Help it! You will get more out of it than you realize.

"Cigar Box" Available

Father John A. Stankiewicz, Treasurer of St. Michael's College, has today revealed the answer to the notorious question all Michaelmen have been interested in since school opened.

YES! The "cigar box" will be found, with its tight cover, resting in the treasurer's office once again this year. Realizing, as only a treasurer should, that not all college men of today are millionaires, he feels that the little "loan" box is a necessity to many Michaelmen.

The life of the little box, however, shall depend largely upon how it is used by the students.

Father Stankiewicz emphasizes the fact that this benefit should not be abused.

The maximum amount shall not exceed 10 to 15 dollars and this being granted in only "extreme" cases! The time allowed for the return payment shall not be longer than two weeks, however, veterans under the G.I. bill may obtain the usual month in some cases.

S.S.E. CHANGES

Several members of the Society of Saint Edmund are now serving other houses of the Society.

Among the losses on campus is that of Rev. Garrett B. Larkin, S.S.E. Father Larkin is at the Selma, Alabama mission.

Rev. Fathers Vincent Corfne, S.S.E., and Anthony Wiggins, S.S.E., are new members of the Cardinal Mindszenty H.S. faculty at Dunkirk, N.Y. Very Rev. Francis M. Moriarty, S.S.E., is the new superior at Dunkirk. Rev. Father Waite, S.S.E., formerly an English instructor at SMC and more recently in the southern missions is now also at Dunkirk.

The S.S.E. church, St. Anastasse, in Greenfield, Quebec, has a new pastor, Rev. Maurice Bouffard, S.S.E. Father Bouffard served as acting chaplain for Fort Ethan Allen and Fanny Allen Hospital.

The MICHAELMAN is conducting a search for photographers who will submit pictures for publication. Jobs offering a wide variety of interests await students who have a camera and can do developing. Contact Ralph Diehl, Ryan 208

Club Carillon Strives For Comeback

By Vianney Ferlord

To the present French students (or those interested in French) of St. Michael's College the Club Carillon offers an entirely new and interesting challenge this year.

Since the very foundation of the school, this club has been among the first ever to be formed and encouraged by the Fathers of St. Edmund. Its purpose then, as it is now, is to perfect the appreciation of French culture on campus.

For over twenty years now, this club has been doing its part in contributing to the advancement of culture over and above classroom integrations. It is only recently that this club has failed to live up to its name, and that, through no fault of anyone at all.

The reason is that the men who directed it could not afford the time that it needed to keep the club's activities in high gear so that its members could keep a strong interest in it. This year, however, the Club Carillon has obtained a new leadership to inject it with a new life.

That spark of life needs some good coal "to burn on." That new life it needs, fellow Michaelmen, can only be put in there by YOU. The Club Carillon has the capacity of being what it was several years ago -- a fine club, a strong club. If anything, it has even greater potentiality today than it ever had, in all its history.

This year, we are trying to obtain a professional troupe of actors from Canada to play here at St. Mike's.

With a little help from a few of you, we can do it. It can be made one of the most interesting spectacles on campus this year. And then, of course, once this is made a success, we will be able to have an excursion in Canada to thank the members for their hard work, and as another activity for them. So what do you say, Michaelmen, do you think this club has something to offer? The second meeting will be Friday, October 26th. May we see you then?

Mission Crusade To Top Last Year's Total

Seeking to top its $2900 quota of last year, the Mission Crusade has set up committees for the year.

At the first meeting activities for the year were announced by President Bill Doyle.

Committee chairmen were appointed by the moderator, Father Maurice Boucher. They are as follows:

Collecting of stamps, Paul Murphy, Cambridge, Mass.; Sunday Collections, Richard Callahan, Chicopee, Mass.; Alfred Fondacaro, Medford, Mass.; Christmas Cardsale, Bernard Boucher, Highgate Center, Vt.; Mission Crusader, James McKown, San Mateo, Calif.; Distribution of Newsletter, Leo Cappuccio, Salem, Mass.; Mite Boxes, Robert Nugent, Worcester, Mass.; John Hogan, Belmont, Mass.; Pamphlets, Robert Gettens, Leominster, Mass.; Freshman Talent Show, Thomas Murray, Framingham, Mass.; N.F.C.C.S. Mission Commission, Bill Doyle, Worcester, Mass.; Jack Stewart, Burlington, Vt.; Collection of old clothes and medicine, John Cummings, Westfield, Mass.; Mass serving, Thomas Geno, Proctor, Vt.; Robert Giroux, Burlington, Vt.; Publicity, Julian LaFlamme, Bennington, Vt.; Michael Merrigan, North Adams, Mass.; George Senesac, Shelburne, Vt.; Reporter, Harold Johnson, Hamden, Conn.

As is evident from the list of committees many projects are planned. In outlining this year's activities it was pointed out by the moderator the necessity of complete co-operation with the chairman on the part of all the members, and the student body; if we are to be as successful as last year.

Last year the club reached its highest peak when it collected over $2900.00. Of this it cleared $1859.00, of this $900 was sent to the Negro Boy's Club of Selma, Alabama, and $350 went to Foreign Missions. The remainder was placed in a reserve for this year's activities.

CAMPUS WHEELS

By Dan Jennings

One of the most important and perhaps most difficult jobs on campus is that of President of the Student Council. However, the incumbent of that exalted office, THOMAS SHIELDS, takes all things smoothly in his stride as he directs in his unassuming way those who determine the course of student activities at St. Michael's.

Tom, who came to St. Michael's after his graduation from Weymouth, Mass., High School is one of the youngest members of his class. In fact, he will receive his degree while still 20. (Tom requests that this information be kept from falling into unworthy hands.)

From his freshman days Tom has taken an active part in student life. In his first year he was elected President of his class and was chairman of the St. Patrick's Day Dance that same year. For two years he has served on the Student Council. He has also been an N.F.C.C.S. delegate for the past two years.

Although Tom has been active in intramural sports he has maintained a high scholastic record and last semester was on the Dean's

THOMAS SHIELDS

List. Tom remarks that he is very happy that he decided to come to SMC. By coincidence the friend who first recommended the college to him was then president of the Student Council at Holy Cross. Likewise, a younger brother of Tom's is currently presiding over the Student Council in the high school he attends. In Tom's estimation the Council at St. Michael's is composed of the best possible men for the job. He terms the cooperation he is receiving from them as first class. Tom thinks that the growing reputation of St. Michael's will soon result in the college ranking among the top schools in the East.

As for his own future, Tom would like to compete in the business world as a salesman but first he foresees a stint in the employment of Uncle Sam. On the personal side, he would like to raise a family "of boys" but he is still in the market for the right girl.

MEN OF DISTINCTION SWITCH TO DEBATING CLUB

Joseph C. McNeil, Judge

Jeremiah K. Durick, Ph.D.

I believe that one of the most practical things a person can develop and gain experience in during his college days is the art of public speaking - of being able to address a gathering of people in a clear, understanding and effective manner. Do not wait until you have graduated when your mistakes and inexperience as a public speaker will prove embarrassing, costly, and be the means of deterring you in advancement in your chosen life's work.

The college graduate is often and justifiably accused of being inarticulate -- tongue tied to you -- he has ideas - something to say - but he is so timid he often prefers to sit back and let other people's ideas rule the world. Participation in debate whether on the varsity team or in the club, is one way of insuring that you will, by your own ability to speak on your feet be able to, "Make reason and the will of God Prevail."

With the showing of "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College," the 1951-52 movie program got under way last Sunday in Austin Hall.

Rev. Henry Albiser will have charge of the program this year in cooperation with the NFCCS. He succeeds Rev. Gerard Duford.

Movies are shown Sunday nights at 7:30, with a minimum offering of 10 cents expected from each student. If there is a profit, it goes to the Mission Crusade. If not, the deficit is underwritten by the Student Council.

Fr. Albiser said that complete list of movies has not been set yet. However, such hits as "The Magic Bow," "Mr. Emmanuel" and "Buccaneer's Girl" have already been set up.

This year, as has been the policy of past Pen and Mike clubs, a series of radio programs is being conducted on W J O Y Sunday afternoons.

A deviation from the ultra-religious type show is planned for this year with the half hour from 12:30 to 1:00 split into two different sections. The "Pen and Mike" theater of the air will be presented from 12:30 to 12:45 and Fr. Gerard Duford will then take over with his portion of the program entitled, "The Knight and the Lady".

The show is under the direction of Edward "Ned" O'Gorman and the script is being handled by Ed Ruest.

Fr. Duford expressed his thanks to station W J O Y for their co-operating in making these shows a success.

Infirmary Offers 24 hr. Service

Reverend Armand F. Dube, S.S.E., Infirmary of St. Michael's College, today expressed how favorably impressed he is with the new "Student Insurance Policy," which is obligatory for all students.

The number of patients thus far treated has not yet been calculated but Father is certain it has increased tremendously over the past few years.

This compulsory program, which includes off-campus students offers the insured payment up to five hundred dollars for accident or illness within a twelve month period regardless of where he is at the time of the accident.
